Dublin Learning City Festival Cancelled

We would like to inform you that following the latest expert advice on Covid-19 and in consultation with our stakeholders, the Dublin Learning City Festival - which was due to take place from 30th March to 3rd April - has been cancelled (with effect 12/03/20).

Though the overall festival has been cancelled, some of the learning activities with limited numbers of places may still be proceeding or may have been rescheduled depending on the preferences of the individual event organisers. If you have already registered for a particular activity or event, we would encourage you to contact the organiser directly to confirm whether or not the event is still scheduled to take place.

In the coming months, we will continue to promote learning opportunities in the city. In the autumn, we plan to host a Dublin Learning City Assembly with learners, stakeholders and festival event organisers, subject to an improvement in the Covid-19 situation.

Thank you for your interest in attending Dublin Learning City Festival. We look forward to working with you in the future.

Regards,

Denise McMorrow, IADT, and Trevor Purtill, MIE, Co-Chairs of Dublin Learning City
